Sacha Walckhoff, Christian Lacroix Creative Director, Launches New Designs for Home

Designer Sacha Walckhoff, an expert in both fashion and home design, is out with two beautiful new collaborations. Working with both YO2 and Van Treeck, the creative director of the legendary house of Christian Lacroix has devised a table as well as wallpaper and rug designs. “Since last spring [when] the quarantines [were] put in place all over the world, we have had to find new ways to create and offer our design and interior decoration ideas, which remain in great demand since we have all been at home almost all the time,” Walckhoff says to AD PRO. “I am happy to present the first results of this new way of working today which has been possible thanks to the dynamism of these companies who have not given up!”
